

about

---

theoretical practitioner residing somewhere among art, architecture, philosophy, and psychology focused on exploring the nature of reality and the human condition through relationships of 'form' and 'space'

education

---

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

2022 . present

◦ master of architecture candidate

◦ graduate fellow

Fontainebleau Schools of Music and Fine Arts

2024

◦ summer session

◦ a. anthony tappe scholarship recipient

University of Maryland, College Park

2018 . 2022

◦ bachelor of arts of philosophy

◦ bachelor of science in architecture

experience

---

director | transtension

december 1999 . present

◦ founder of theoretical research practice and design studio

◦ currently working on a residential dwelling in Maryland and an exhibition titled "Le Stereotomie des Nuages"

designer | Office of (Un)certainity Research

january 2024 . present | cambridge, ma

◦ currently working on design and fabrication for an upcoming exhibition at the Univeresity of Washington featuring recent works from O(U)R

intern | MOREAU KUSUNOKI

may 2023 . august 2023 | paris, france

◦ assisted in the development of the Takanawa Gateway City Phase II Masterplan in Shinagawa City, Tokyo, Japan

◦ developed the main concept for the Ma Exhibition in Iran gallery assistant | UMD MAPP

august 2021 . may 2022 | college park, md

◦ assisted in preparing and maintaining the Holodomor Exhibition in the Kibel Gallery

◦ designed and set up an interactive 9/11 Memorial installation intern | Kinch Construction

june 2021 . august 2021 | washington, dc

◦ acted as on-site supervisor on several different educational institution projects

◦ drafted construction and demolition document sets

awards, teaching, involvement

---

Teaching Assistant

january 2024 . present | MIT

◦ for 4.110 Design Across Scales and Disciplines taught by Nicholas de Monchaux and Roi Salgueiro Barrio

A. Anthony Tappe Scholarship

2024 | MIT / Fontainebleau Schools

◦ received for being the top applicant based on a hand-drawn portfolio

ASC student mentor

2022 , 2023 | MIT

◦ paired with an incoming student to help them transition into their first semester at MIT

UMD strategic mentor

2023 . present | University of Maryland

◦ paired with a current MAPP undergraduate student to meet weekly and discuss school, life, and plans after graduation

IAP Instructor

january 2024 | MIT

◦ designed and instructed a introductory drafting and projection course for undergraduate students faculty award for excellence in design

2022 | University of Maryland

◦ received for being one of the top graduating students based on work produced in the final year of study design cultures and creativity honors

2018 . 2022 | University of Maryland

◦ placed in the Honors College at UMD and received a certificate for completing DCC program requirements with high standing